Representative Antitrust Matters

- Healthco v. A-dec, 1987-1988 - Our client, A-dec, was sued by a terminated distributor, who claimed the termination violated federal antitrust laws because it arose out of the distributor's competitive activities. We successfully defended both at the PI stage and on summary judgment.
- Lattice Semiconductor v. Interface Electronics, 1991-1993 - We represented Lattice in connection with an antitrust counterclaim brought by a terminated distributor. The distributor claimed it was terminated in furtherance of an illegal resale price maintenance scheme. The case was dismissed by the District Court, which was affirmed by the Ninth Circuit.
- NW Medical Lab. v. Blue Cross and Blue Shield, 310 Or 72, 794 P2d 428, 1990 - We represented the members of an integrated health care network who were sued by two ancillary service providers. Plaintiffs claimed the network's refusal to include the plaintiffs constituted an illegal group boycott. A bench trial resulted in judgment for our clients, which was upheld by both the Oregon Court of Appeals and the Supreme Court.
- Parks v. Watson, 716 F2d 646 (9th Cir 1983) - Putative developer of geothermal project sued our client, the City of Klamath Falls, for attempt to monopolize the market for geothermal energy. Case was dismissed on summary judgment, reversed by the Ninth Circuit, and ultimately settled.

- Southern Pacific v. AT&T, 1985-1986 - We represented the former Bell Operating Companies that later became part of Qwest in one of the civil cases that followed the break up of AT&T.
